

CARL ZACH CYCLING CLASSIC

DOWNTOWN WAUKESHA » JUNE 24, 2018

It's time to head to downtown Waukesha for a day full of exciting, international bicycle racing as the Carl Zach Cycling Classic returns on Sunday, June 24. Presented by Couri Insurance Agency, the criterium race will feature cyclists from all over the world, men and women, in Categories 3-5, Masters, and of course, the Pros! Waukesha will also host the Handcycling Final with a field of more than 40 racers including the Paralyzed Veterans of America Team.

Stop by Cutler Park on the course at 321 Wisconsin Ave., race day and enjoy:

Liam Ford Band

3:00 - 7:00 pm Liam Ford Band playing all your Johnny Cash and Rockabilly favorites!

3:00 - 6:00 pm Bring the kids and climb the trees with Treetop Explorers

2:00 - 7:00 pm Enjoy beverage service in the park offered by the Park Foundation of Waukesha with Raised Grain Brewing Company products and delish food from Matty's Food Truck. Please note, no carry-in of alcoholic beverages is allowed.

Be sure to get the kids entered to ride in the Kiddie Klassic. More info on page 2.

Free Waukesha Transit bus rides all day courtesy of Beneco, too!

It's going to be a great day at the Carl Zach Cycling Classic and the Parks, Recreation & Forestry Department would like to thank our title sponsor, Couri Insurance, for their generous sponsorship of the bike race.

Get downtown and join in all the fun of the Carl Zach Cycling Classic on Sunday, June 24!
