For More Information Visit Us At www.waukeshacivictheatre.org

The Musical Comedy Murders Of 1940

September 14-30, 2018 | Comedy

Snowed in at their wealthy patron's Westchester estate, a creative team reunites to launch a new show – stalked by the “Stage Door Slasher,” who haunted their last Broadway flop. (NOT a musical. YES a comedy!)

disABILITY: The Evolution

October 4-7, 2018 | Musical Comedy

This show explores the human experience of disability from the dawn of recorded history through 20th century America, set to music with a whimsical cast of characters. Inspired by the smash hit Hamilton!

Billy Elliot The Musical

October 26-November 11, 2018 | Musical Comedy

Set during the miners' strike of 1984-85, this musical follows Billy as he trades in boxing gloves for ballet shoes and develops the courage to be uniquely himself. This show contains strong language – discretion advised.

Waukesha Reads Special Event

October 30, 2018 | 7:00 pm

See the original cabaret inspired by our featured book, created and performed by Candace Decker and Phil Smith. Following, stay for our keynote presentation by Philip Chard, psychotherapist, author, and Milwaukee Journal columnist as he examines the most important relationship we have – that with one's self.

You've Got A Friend

November 5-8, 2018 | Musical Revue

Kerry Bieneman, Casey Olson, and Melissa Cardamone join forces to pay tribute to Carole King and James Taylor.

Candy Cane Tales And Holiday Carols

November 30-December 16, 2018 | Holiday Variety Show

Celebrate with a cast of all ages acting, singing, and dancing through classic seasonal songs and stories. This WCT family tradition is a must-see part of the holiday season.

An Evening Of Holiday Tales With John McGivern

December 4, 2018 | 7:30 pm | Comedic Fundraiser

John McGivern serves up a steady stream of stories from his Wisconsin childhood. This show recounts holidays past and present and is guaranteed to generate loads of laughs and a warm, holiday glow. ALL TICKETS $50.
