TIME since 1859

First Bank Financial Centre has been making lives better since the beginning of time. Okay, that might be dramatic, but it has been since 1859, which is still a really long time! For 160 years we have helped our customers and communities thrive and succeed through product offerings, loans, volunteerism, and charitable giving. In fact, our communities mean so much to us, over the last year our employees volunteered nearly 12,500 hours to over 250 local organizations, and the bank has donated more than $1,000,000 over the last 5 years to local non-profits. If you wonder what might make us different than the others, look no further than our commitment to make lives better.
