Charity of Choice - Life's Connection

Life's Connection was established in Mukwonago and later expanded to Waukesha. We are a faith-based pregnancy support center offering free resources to families in need within our community providing hope, help, and healing when families need it most.

Our Mission is to serve our community by providing health and educational services to build physical, emotional, and spiritual well-being.

We charitably serve anyone facing difficulties in a variety of life issues. These can include crisis pregnancy, miscarriage and stillbirth, loss of a loved one, and family or life crisis. We walk alongside our clients on their journey through difficult times offering mentoring, education, referral, and support.

Our Vision is a community that welcomes, loves, and supports all life!

We would love to give you a tour of our Brand-New Mukwonago Center located at 801 N Rochester Street in Mukwonago. Come see where miracles are happening in our own community.
