A Scandinavian Christmas Concert

Sun, Dec 12 @ 2:00pm

The Wisconsin Philharmonic also known as the Waukesha Symphony Orchestra has been a part of the music community for almost 75 years. We are offering free tickets to our Christmas Concert to the community in hopes that it will bring comfort and healing after the recent tragedy.

The orchestra will be joined by the Women's Choirs of Brookfield East, Brookfield Central and Germantown High Schools for Finnegan's Christmas Sing-along and several holiday favorites with a Scandinavian flair. The concert will conclude with the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's "The Messiah."

Thank you to our sponsors who make this concert possible: Century Fence, Waukesha State Bank, Bryce and Anne Styza Carroll University and Anonymous Friends of the Philharmonic

We here at Dan's L&L Fine Jewelry and Greater Milwaukee Coin extend our compassion and condolences to the victims of the Waukesha Parade tragedy.

We lost wonderful customers to the murderer.
Some customer families suffered with injuries, others witnessed the brutality, as did some of our employees.
Living and working in Waukesha for decades,
we know, in time, our community will heal.
The generosity and caring shown to the victims is “Waukesha Strong”
May the Lord give us all Peace and comfort through these times.
